High Demo Talks Here On June 8

Stephen Mitchell, former chairman of the Democratic National Committee and Adlai Stevenson's campaign manager, will speak at the Sierra Madre Woman's Club-house June 8.

The dinner session, sponsored by the Sierra Madre Democratic Club, will start at 7 p.m.

During his stay in Sierra Madre, Mr. Mitchell will be the guest of his sister-in-law and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. William Burns, 549 W. Montecito.

Mr. Mitchell accepted the invitation on condition that the meeting be small, not a political rally and limited to the comparatively few persons the Sierra Madre Woman's Club can accommodate.

He said he will appear only to exchange frank and friendly views with local Democrats. As a close friend of Adlai Stevenson's, he probably knows as well as anyone what Mr. Stevenson's aims will be in the next few years.

The committee of arrangements includes Mrs. Thomas H. Lathe, Mrs. Michael Nothman, Mrs. Robert Nash, Mrs. Ray Johnson, Melbey Kidd, Doree Sharpe and Fred Elmhirst.

Noted Writer To Speak Here June 7

Adela Rogers St. Johns, well-known screen-writer, novelist, short-story writer and reporter, will be guest speaker at the Sierra Madre Public Library the evening of Friday, June 7.

The occasion will be the annual election meeting of the Friends of the Library, scheduled for 8 o'clock.

Mrs. St. Johns, a frequent visitor to Sierra Madre for many years, will be entertained here by Mr. and Mrs. James Richardson.

Jim Richardson, legendary city editor of the Los Angeles Examiner, has been a friend and colleague of Mrs. St. Johns since 1911, when both of them joined the staff of the Los Angeles Herald on the same day.

Mrs. St. Johns' short stories appeared in most of the leading national magazines. She has written numerous screen plays, perhaps the best known being "A Free Soul." Her latest book, "How To Write And Sell Stories," was published recently.

Historical Group Has New Officers

Mrs. H. Randolph Wood was re-elected president of the Sierra Madre Historical Society at its annual meeting Saturday.

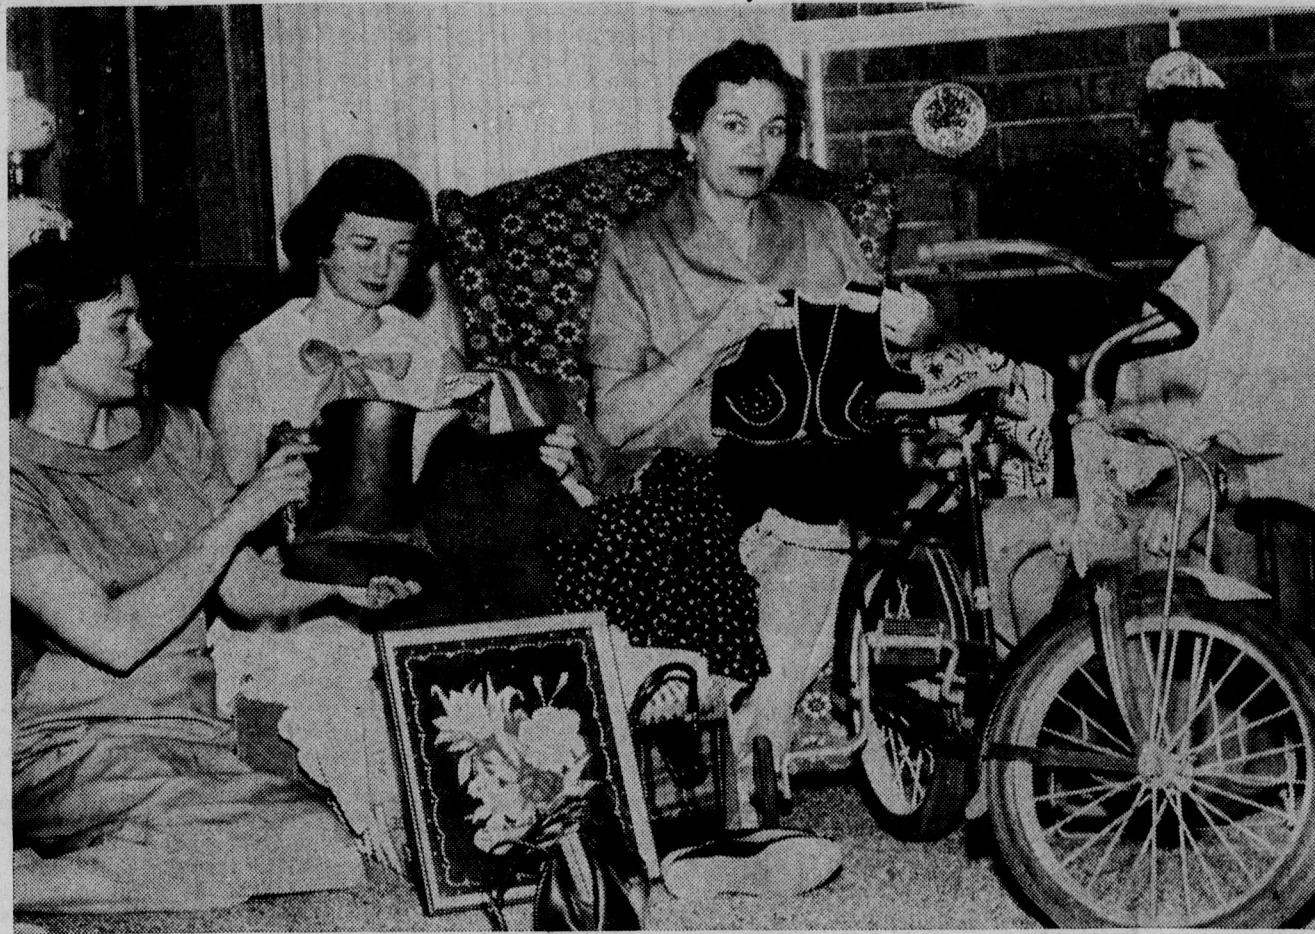

Returning with her for the coming year will be Richard Lees, vice president; Mrs. Edith Nelson, curator, and Mrs. Maybelle Barker, historian. Mrs. Helen Sandage was elected secretary-treasurer.

Committee chairmen appointed by the president are Mrs. Doris Suman, materials; Mrs. Jack Shearer, exhibits; Miss Clara Sykes, hospitality; and Richard Lees, program.

C. W. JONES, president emeritus, presented a resolution expressing the society's sorrow and loss in the death last week of Conners Twycross, for the past seven years an officer of the organization.

Annual dues were raised from 50 cents to $1 and are now payable to Mrs. Helen Sandage, 168 W. Highland.

Following the business meeting, Fred La Lone and Forest Ranger Ed Shangrow, members of the Search and Rescue Squad, spoke on the squad's work and showed a film on mountain wild life.

MEMBERS OF the area guild of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, which includes women from Sierra Madre and Hastings Ranch, display some of the items which will be included in the group's rummage sale June 7 at 59 N. Baldwin, former location of Arnold's Hardware.

On June 8 the sale will move to 40 S. Fair Oaks, Pasadena. From left are Mrs. Eugene Rode, Mrs. Wayne Blackman, Mrs. Marvin Anderson and Mrs. A. J. Wynn.

X-Ray Unit Here June 5, 6 and 7

The big green X-ray truck of the County Health Department will move into the Kersting Court Triangle Wednesday, June 5, for a three-day picture-taking stand.

Hours during which the unit will be open are: 10 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Wednesday; 12:30 to 7 p.m. Thursday; 9 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. Friday.

There is no charge for chest X-rays as the program is tax-supported by the County Health Department. No appointments are necessary. The service is limited to persons over 15 years of age, but minors must have written consent of parents or guardians.

Annual Art Fair Readied for June 8 Opening

Artists and craftsmen from neighboring Southland cities will exhibit at the annual Pot-pourri Arts and Crafts Fair to be held at Church of the Ascension Saturday, June 8.

The parish house, patio and gardens will be filled with exhibits which will be on view during afternoon and evening. Oils and watercolors, ceramics, weaving and jewelry will be shown, according to Mrs. Spencer P. Edwards, chairman.

St. Catherine's Guild, which sponsors the Fair, will serve afternoon tea and the Parents Club will serve pot-pourri supper between 6 and 7:30.

Schools Join Chamber Clean-Up Campaign

Fifth- and sixth-graders at Sierra Madre School have embarked on an accident-prevention drive in line with the Chamber of Commerce sponsored Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up campaign, which starts June 1.

School Superintendent Charles A. Skutt said each student will be given a list of items to check at home.

These will include open cellar doorways, roller skates on the floor and the dozens of other hazards to home safety.

"Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up," Mr. Skutt said, "is a civics course in action which teaches our children the privileges and responsibility of citizenship."

"In addition, by coming in contact with local sanitation, health, police and fire department officials, the youth will gain increased respect for organized society and its protective services. The campaign widens the outlook of any child."

Mr. Skutt urged all parents to participate fully in the campaign and to encourage their children to join in as many Clean-Up promotions as possible.

Good Progress Made On Swimming Pool

All excavation work is completed at the site of the new swimming pool and the contractor is ready to pour concrete for the bathhouse, City Administrator Lawrence C. Bevington told councilmen Tuesday night.

The pool itself, Mr. Bevington said, is also ready for the pouring of concrete.

One minor hitch, however, has developed in city plans for the ultimate use of the water grounds as a recreation area.

MR. BEVINGTON said that Dr. C. S. Merrill of Arcadia, owner of a 2.2-acre strip of land between the water grounds and the cemetery, has declined to lease a portion of the parcel to the city.

Instead, he wants to sell the entire strip to the city for approximately $32,000. City councilmen authorized Mr. Bevington to continue negotiations with Dr. Merrill with a view toward leasing the land, or a part of it, for an eight-year period with an option to buy.

In other action the Council held the final public hearing on the Cypress Court assessment district. One written protest was received from Louis Arce, a resident of the area.

Mr. Arce said, in his letter, that he had been assessed about $5 too much and that the street is cracking in one spot because the roots of a cactus plant were not dug out beneath the pavement.

If Mr. Arce's contentions are correct, the city will reduce his assessment by $5 and, in addition, correct any possible defect in the street.

THE COUNCIL also approved a Planning Commission variance which would permit Cypress Court residents to improve their properties without applying in each case to the Planning Commission.

This was necessary because Cypress Court lots are smaller than the size permitted under the Zoning Ordinance.

The Council also authorized the city attorney to prepare a contract with the Board of Education for the joint support of the city's recreation program. The city will contribute $3,477.75, which includes operating funds for the new pool, while the school's share will be $3,000. Additional funds are contributed by the county.

Also, the Council went on record in support of a bill that would prohibit the county from establishing dump sites in cities without the consent of the councils of those cities.

BLOOD DRIVE RESULTS
A total of 118 pints of blood were contributed last Monday at the Woman's Clubhouse during the visit of the Red Cross Bloodmobile. Of the 166 donors who reported, 48 were rejected, an unusually high percentage.

CHARGE DISMISSED
Assault charges against draftsman A. G. Seely, 390 Sycamore, were dismissed last week after preliminary hearing in Pasadena Municipal Court.

Drunk Driving Nets Jail Terms For 3 Angelenos

After an 80 mile an hour pursuit down Sierra Madre Blvd., police arrested three Los Angeles men early Saturday morning, jailing them on drunk driving and drunk charges.

Charles Finney, 23, 330 N. Bixel, Los Angeles, driver of the car, pleaded guilty Monday in Pasadena Municipal Court to charges of drunk driving, reckless driving and non-possession of a driver's license. He was given a $150 fine or 30 days in jail along with a 90-day suspension of driving privileges.

His companions, Frederick Carter, 25, same address, and Thomas Gore, 34, 1848 Pacific, Venice, were handed $25 fines or 12 1/2 days in jail each.

Police clocked Finney at over 78 miles an hour as he went through the Baldwin Boulevard stop and an even higher speed when he ran through the Mt. Trail stop sign. Finney narrowly missed east and west bound cars before police halted him.

Top Award Winner to Exhibit Here

Paintings of Edgar Ewing, who last week took the $2500 Goldwyn Award at the County Museum Annual, will go on exhibition Sunday in the gallery of the Sierra Madre Public Library.

Open House will be held Sunday afternoon from 2 until 5 p.m. with members of Friends of the Library as hosts. The exhibit lasts through July 5.

Mr. Ewing is associate professor of fine arts at USC, presently in Greece on sabbatical leave. He was educated at the Chicago Art Institute and awarded the Ryerson fellowship for foreign travel. Since then he has painted through Europe and Africa and, during Army service, in India and Japan.

He has exhibited widely through the United States as well as the Metropolitan Museum and the Third Biennial at Sao Paulo, Brazil.

The Ewing show marks term-end for members of the Exhibits Committee. New members will go in at the June election of officers of Friends of the Library.

Boy, 13, Is Jailed for Burglaries

A 13 year-old boy, living in Sierra Madre with his uncle, is in Juvenile Hall following his arrest and arraignment for a series of burglaries in Sierra Madre and Pasadena.

His most current job was the burglary, May 21, of the home of Mrs. Pat Baker, 94 Esperanza, where the boy cut a screen, entered through an unlocked window and stole money and jewelry totaling $460.

The following day he took a lighter from Roland Brandt's car parked at 17 Suffolk.

THE SAME afternoon his gym instructor at Marshall Junior High School found the boy was carrying a gun and summoned Pasadena police. When police records showed the gun had been stolen in a Pasadena burglary, the boy confessed to a mounting series of thefts.

He had established living quarters, where he frequently stayed overnight, in a vacant house at 691 E. Green in Pasadena. Almost all the stolen property, including Mrs. Baker's money and jewelry, was recovered there.

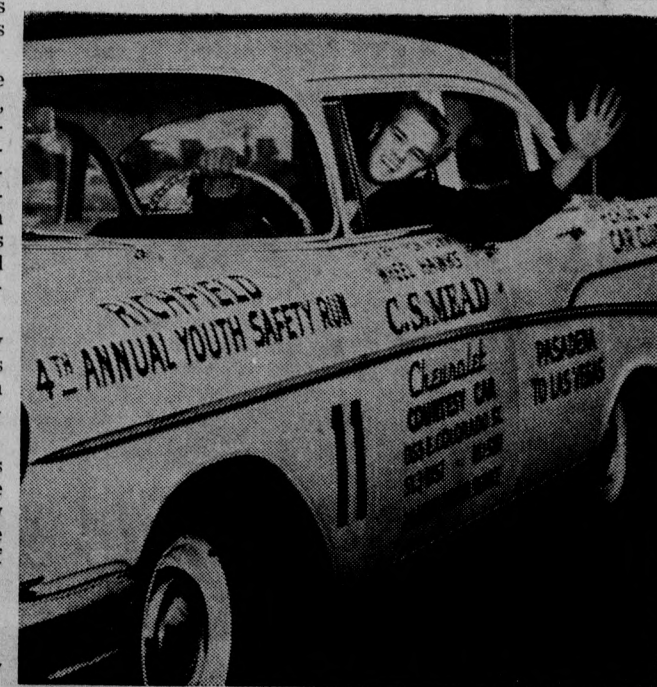

POLICE CHIEF Gordon McMillan interviewed the boy and cleared up three local bicycle thefts. The young thief would pick up a bicycle in town and ride it to Pasadena, abandoning it near his destination, the chief said.

The boy is an orphan, Chief McMillan said, with a half-brother and an elderly grandmother living in Idaho. His uncle brought him to Sierra Madre to try and relieve family difficulties. The boy admitted to petty thefts before coming here.

Services for Clyde Baliet Held Tuesday

Clyde A. Baliet, 74, father of Mrs. Gifford P. Eastwood, died Saturday in a Pasadena hospital. Rev. George W. Lindsay officiated at services Tuesday in Arcadia with interment at Live Oak Memorial Park in Monrovia.

Mr. Baliet, who lived at 181 E. Grandview, is survived by his widow Georgia W. Mrs. Eastwood and four grandchildren. He was a native of Union County, Pa., and an official in the coal mining industry.

RON HURWITT, president of the Sierra Madre Wheel Hawks, waves goodbye at the start of the Richfield economy run from Pasadena to Las Vegas. Ron, 18-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hurwitz, was selected to make the run as driver because of his safety record and because he won first place in the San Gabriel Valley obstacle course for automobiles. Other members of the Wheel Hawks who made the run as checker and observer in different cars are John Tailac and Peter Delgatto.

Dog Inoculations Set June 6-7

Dog owners in Sierra Madre may have their pets inoculated against rabies June 6 and 7 from 6:30 to 9 p.m. at the Sierra Madre School parking lot, Auburn and Victoria Lane.

Under a city ordinance, all dogs must be inoculated before their owners can get licenses for them. The mass inoculation is being sponsored by the local PTA.

Local Theater Leased; Open In One Month

The Linton Corp., owner of seven theaters in Los Angeles, has leased the Sierra Madre Theater, it was announced yesterday.

George Munton, an officer in the corporation, said the theater will be entirely refurbished before its grand opening, possibly in about one month.

Seats will be repaired and replaced, carpeting will be laid, a new screen and new sound system will be installed and the theater will be painted, Mr. Munton said.

There will be two changes in pictures each week, he added, and the theater will continue the Saturday showings for children.

When all repair work is completed, a free show will be offered for two days to all area residents, both children and adults.

Final Rites for Philip Blumer, Former Resident

Funeral services were held Tuesday in Glendale for Philip W. Blumer, 75, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Blumer who settled in Sierra Madre in 1886.

Mr. Blumer attended Sierra Madre School when it was situated in Kersting Court, and the Pasadena High School. He was associated with the Security First National Bank for 48 years.

He is survived by his widow, his son John Blumer of Hastings Ranch and three grandchildren. He also leaves a sister, Mrs. John W. Hart of Sierra Madre; a niece, Mrs. Edith Thacher Dane of Sierra Madre; two brothers, Dr. George Blumer of Balboa Island and Fred B. Blumer of Freeport, Long Island.

Drawing Maps Need For Eight Classrooms

Architect's plans for six new classrooms at Sierra Mesa School, two kindergarten rooms and a cafeteria were unveiled before members of the Board of Education at their meeting Monday night. The additions would cost approximately $290,000.

The plans were prepared by the firm of Smith, Powell & Morgridge and were presented to the School Board by Howard Morgridge.

Plans call for three new blocks of buildings. The first block includes six classrooms and shelter space and covers an area of 8,180 square feet. This block would cost $98,160.

THE SECOND block comprises two kindergartens and shelter area totaling 3,900 square feet which could be built for $46,800. Possibly $3,500 more may have to be spent in the first two blocks to build retaining walls and to pave portions of the school yard.

The third block includes the cafeteria, or multipurpose building, and additional shelter area—5,200 square feet of space at a total cost of $93,600.

Additional expenditures for such items as classroom furniture, kitchen equipment, architectural fees, etc., would increase the cost to an estimated $288,760.

If these plans are approved by the Board of Education, Sierra Madre would have to authorize a bond issue of approximately $290,000.

SCHOOL administrators and Board members consider the additions an absolute necessity.

Our school population is growing at the rate of approximately 40 new students per year with an anticipated maximum growth of 400 in 10 years, by conservative estimates. This means that in 1967, Sierra Madre will have a school population of about 1,200, compared with 800 at present.

The additions would provide facilities for eight classrooms with the possible use of the cafeteria as a ninth, of the cafeteria as a ninth,

Board Candidates Air Views at School Here

All nine candidates for three vacant seats on the Pasadena School Board appeared at the Sierra Madre School Tuesday night at the invitation of the Coordinating Council to speak and answer questions concerning their views on education. Some 125 attended the meeting.

The candidates all appeared to agree that the schools should furnish basic education for children of the district, but their views differed sharply on other school matters.

Introduced alphabetically for five-minute talks, the first speaker was Miss Mabel Fossler, a practical nurse and previous candidate.

MISS FOSLER said the basis of her platform was "harmony," and "interest in the health, welfare and education of the child."

She suggested that Sierra Madre should abandon its own elementary schools and join with Pasadena on the lower school level as well as on a secondary one and "save yourselves a little money."

Mrs. LuVerne LaMotte, housewife, said she believes in a "public school system alert to constant improvement" to furnish, not only a "good solid basic program," but also one equipped to train vocationally and provide fine and creative arts, "the mark of a cultural society."

She called for a "respectful atmosphere" between the Board, public, teaching profession and pupils, and cited a need for stress on basic English grammar, an earlier oral foreign language program and courses in "how to study." She said a "new high school is needed desperately and immediately," and that the present Junior College campus is exemplary.

LAUREL McELWAIN, tool-maker, stressed the importance of planning for the future, and predicted a four-year college in Pasadena within 10 years.

Malcolm Meguiar, manufacturer, listed a number of civic and youth organizations to which he belongs, and said he offers "service" and his knowledge of business.

He said the Board should be a policy making group with a "competent staff to carry out that policy."

Steve Salisian, tire dealer, said he was educated locally and believes the schools are good but that "we cannot stand still" and must continually work to make them better. He said the 3R's are necessary as well as vocational training and the arts, learning to be good citizens, and learning to think.

He added that the Board's function is to set policy and see that it is carried out by the administration without meddling.

Most Dangerous Pests

An important aspect of Sierra Madre's Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up program is the war on rats.

Rats, probably the most dangerous, useless and destructive pests known, are no strangers to our city. They harbor the germs of more than half dozen serious diseases, including bubonic plague, typhus (we had a case in Sierra Madre), infectious jaundice, rat-bite fever and food infections.

Control is our most effective weapon and control is feasible only if war is declared on rats. Rat extermination is a must in every Clean-Up, Paint-Up, Fix-Up program. This is a job for everybody. The entire formula for rat control can be summed up in "Build 'em out—Starve 'em out—Kill 'em." Obviously, entire community cooperation is necessary to make it effective.

To eliminate rats, the public should be made aware of these elementary facts:

1. Build out the rat.
  - a. Cover basement windows and doors with strong screening.
  - b. Close holes around pipes and cracks.
  - c. Install gratings or ventilators and similar openings.
  - d. Equip doors likely to be left open with closing devices.
  - e. Eliminate hollow spaces under floors.
2. Eliminate the rat's food supply
  - a. Place garbage in tightly covered metal containers.
  - b. Keep containers where they cannot be overturned by dogs.
  - c. Keep feed for animals in covered containers.
  - d. Remove food left over from feeding animals.
  - e. Keep all stored foods and stock feed protected from rats.
3. Kill the rat
  - a. Poison rats.
  - b. Fumigate rat burrows.
  - c. Trap rats wherever poison cannot be used.
4. Eliminate the rat's harborage
  - a. Clean out all trash and rubbish from buildings.
  - b. Stack up lumber, stove wood, boxes, etc., on racks at least 18" above ground and not closer than one foot to walls.
  - c. Cut high grass and weeds.

We Can All Vote

It's a safe bet that possibly a dozen or more Sierra Madreans failed to vote in the recent School Board election because of an amazing misconception concerning our voting laws.

It's also safe to predict that several of our city's residents will not exercise their constitutional privilege and cast ballots in the Pasadena School Board election on June 7 because of another equally incredible misconception.

You do NOT have to be a property owner to vote, either in a School Board contest or in any other election. Legal residence is sufficient. Property ownership as a requirement of voting in the United States was hooted out of existence in colonial times.

Yet, believe it or not, several persons, when approached by campaign workers, said they couldn't vote because they owned no property in Sierra Madre.

You do NOT have to live in Pasadena to vote in the election of June 7. Sierra Madre is a part of the Junior and senior high school districts and of the junior college district.

We pay taxes to help support Pasadena public schools and our children attend them. It would be strange indeed if we couldn't vote in the school election.—H.W.E.

Back Seat Driver

Lee Shippey asks
What Do You Think?

Whoever said all that goes up must come down didn't know much about the cost of living.

PERHAPS the most brilliant and picturesque character in the American history of Los Angeles was Earl Rogers, the attorney whose courtroom dramas have become tradition and about whom at least one complete biography in book form, "Take the Witness," was written. More than that, every magazine and newspaper commentator in America and many in foreign lands has paid direct or indirect tribute to the genius of Earl Rogers.

It's a rare thing for a genius to have a son or daughter of outstanding talent, but Adela Rogers St. Johns, daughter of Earl Rogers, is one of the exceptions. As short-story author, novelist, scenarist and sincere personality, Adela Rogers St. Johns has made her mark, and as a newspaper special writer she has covered many historic events.

Her current book, "How to Write and Sell Short Stories" has been hailed by writers of distinction as the most helpful book of its kind. It is a very generous thing for her to agree to speak to the Friends of the Library in our Public Library Community Room June 7. She will be giving us for free a talk many thousands of persons, coast to coast, would travel far and pay well to hear.

AUTHORS are just about the kindest people, anyway. They wouldn't be authors if they didn't yearn to enlighten, entertain or somehow benefit the world. And nowadays it has to be a pretty good author who makes half as much as a plumber does. The average financial rewards of so many other people are far greater than the average writer gets that anyone who values money more than he values a chance to contribute something to human understanding will turn away from authorship as a profession, though it does pay well those who are both gifted and lucky and also manage well.

But there are greater compensations than money. Last Monday Robert Lawson, who illustrated the book, "Ferdinand, the Bull," died. News announced his passing—and millions of us felt momentary sorrow. All of which reminds me that Holling Clancy Holling, who will entertain the youngsters of Sierra Madre at our Public Library at 3 p.m. Saturday, is an author-artist who has delighted millions—and who also is very kind to take the time to be with us.

I THINK everyone in town is mighty sorry Miss Martha Pritchard isn't able to get about and do things as effectively as she has been doing for the public benefit for many years. Miss Pritchard has been a mighty valuable citizen and we have no doubt she will keep right on being one, even if her activities are diminished.

Watch on the Potomac

By Robert G. Spivack
(Mr. Spivack is Washington correspondent for the New York Post.)

HOW DO YOUR SCHOOLS RATE?—The U. S. Chamber of Commerce has been carrying on a vigorous and well-financed campaign to prove that there is no school shortage. The job has been done so skillfully the fate of the Administration's school program is now in doubt. Despite the C. of C.'s normal Republican inclinations, it treats the President and his school advisers as if they were New Dealers or worse.

Just to keep the record straight here are some official figures from the U. S. Office of Education, the Department of Commerce and the National Education Association which give the story in few words.

Oil-rich Texas spends an average of $225 per year per pupil.

Alabama spends $175. South Carolina spends $184. Louisiana spends $268. Mississippi spends $152.

In those states there are insufficient rooms for: Alabama—287,820 students; Texas—55,590; South Carolina—55,500; Louisiana—data unavailable; Mississippi—76,720 students.

Altogether there are 2,295,000 more students than there are schoolrooms or desks available for them.

The average national expenditure per pupil—which takes in some of the more liberal states such as Oregon, New York, Connecticut and Ohio—comes to $295. The average autoist spends more than $300 a year on gasoline.

THE HIGH COST OF Racial Purity—The city of Miami, Fla., recently sent a trade mission to the Caribbean trying to drum up business for local wholesalers, jobbers and retail stores. The business envoys got a jolt when they met Willis O. Isaacs, the Jamaican Minister of Trade.

British buyers from the islands, Isaacs said, were by-passing Miami because it draws the color line in restaurants and hotels. He figured some $2,000,000 to $3,000,000 in trade went to New York because of the practice. The mission came back empty-handed and open-mouthed.

IN MOST towns in Spring a man's fancy turns to thought of love, but here the poets write of other things, to wit:

WASHINGTON SCENE
Skyward prices slowly flutter
Angrily our allies mutter
"Crash," we hear Herb Hoover mutter,
What hopeful word does the President utter?
"Boy, hand me my putter."

Loss of Humphrey May Have Serious Consequence

By Edgar W. Hiestand Rep. 21st District

Many of us in Congress are concerned at the prospects of several able members of the Administration leaving to return to private business.

Most important of these, in my judgment, is Treasury Secretary George M. Humphrey, who is reportedly stepping out July 1 at his own request.

I think it most unfortunate that Mr. Humphrey should consider leaving at this particular time. Long years of high federal spending have created a drastic crisis at the Treasury Department, and to get through this crisis requires a man of Humphrey's business acumen and know-how.

THE CRISIS is this: Inflation has caused a shying away from governmental obligations by private investors. The market for government notes is beginning to dry up as investors find inflation-proof offerings elsewhere that pay far higher rates of return at only slightly greater risks.

Three weeks ago the Treasury tried to refinance about $5 billion worth of government notes, offering a higher rate of interest than had been paid by the government since the depths of the depression. What happened? Approximately 28 per cent of the issue went begging. It found no takers in the money market.

The lack of interest in this offering only highlights what may occur on Aug. 1, of a $5 billion offering was sold, what will happen two

Around the Square

By Marjorie Parker

"Gunfight at the O.K. Corral" is the name of a new picture now being boomed by Paramount press agents.

And Frankie Lane sings a song of the same name which sounds as though the wild goose had been sidetracked into the Southwest. (If anybody found a rhyme for Wyatt Earp, he wins the office Thesaurus.)

Probably every other man walking down a street can tell you something about the bloody gun duel between the Earps and the Clantons that took place at 2:30 p.m. Oct. 26, 1881, in Tombstone, Ariz.

But how many noticed a small headline in last week's dailies, reading: "FIRE SWEEPS OLD TOMBSTONE"?

Three buildings, dating back to frontier days, were burned out. Only a fire wall saved the Crystal Palace Bar and work of firemen saved the offices and presses of the Epitaph.

It is a sort of sin against our country's past that Tombstone should be allowed to disintegrate. Surely the frontier did as much to shape our national character as did the Jamestown and Plymouth Rock landings.

Admittedly Tombstone was a roaring silver camp where millions of dollars came out of the stoves and thousands of them passed nightly over the gambling tables at the Crystal Bar.

Indeed Boot Hill Cemetery is the last resting place for outlaws as well as plain citizens who died peacefully in their beds.

But St. Paul's Episcopal Church, the oldest Protestant church in Arizona still standing on its original site, is still there—built in 1881 of adobe.

And the Epitaph is still published—owned through its 78 years by vigorous outspoken men who have fought for justice—with and without six-shooters at their sides.

What a loss if that town—halfway up a silver-shot mountain, ringed by the barren Dragoons, where coyotes still howl, haunted by strong, adventurous men and courageous women—should be allowed to disappear.

If Jamestown can be restored to its imported grace, why not Tombstone to its boldness and strength?

Paging Mr. Rockefeller Jr.

DEAR CHIEF McMillan: Well, it certainly has been a busy week, trying to find out if I had Chinese pigeons or doves all over the hillside.

When I told you that Cypress Court was full of pink-footed birds going ah-coo-coo-coo, you said, "Ah, those're not doves, probably Chinese pigeons. Very common." And then you said the pigeon had a square tail and the dove a pointed one.

Well, frankly, it took a lot of quiet stalking up on birds' tails to ascertain the truth which is this: down in lower Sierra Madre are the square-tailed Chinese pigeons. But up in Cypress Court we have doves—pointed-tailed, pink-footed, going ah-coo-coo-coo.

People never lose their self-respect by acting on the square.

Out of Flour, Mrs. Fergus Creates Bread Pudding

By Toni Maurin
SY. 7-9634

Sometimes recipes born of desperation are the best and the favorites of all. Such was the case with the recipe given to me by Mrs. John Fergus of 165 E. Sierra Madre Blvd.

It seems that one rainy afternoon in 1939 when she had but four children, she promised to bake a cake. In checking her flour bin she discovered to her chagrin that she had none. She cast about seeking an idea that would allow her to fulfill her promise to those expectant kiddies and came up with this simple and delectable recipe:

BREAD PUDDIN' CAKE

Soak the equivalent of a half a loaf of several day-old white bread (crusts may be included) broken in two cups of milk till soft and mushy, stirring occasionally.

When milk is absorbed whip till completely broken up. Add:

- 1 cup brown sugar
- 1/2 cup white sugar
- 1/2 tsp. each allspice, nutmeg, salt and baking soda
- 1 tsp. cinnamon
- 2 tsp. baking powder
- 2 unbeaten eggs

MRS. FERGUS, who has lived in Sierra Madre since 1936, is the mother of five children. She was born and raised in England and received her formal schooling in France, Germany, Sweden and England.

She came to this country to go to Hunters College in New York to study to be a foreign correspondent. While she was attending Hunters she became interested in dietetics and changed her entire curriculum.

She was married 31 years ago and raised her five children on the site of the present Hornaday's Department Store, which at that time held one of the oldest homes in the city. One daughter has been married about six years and has two children. She has a son and daughter who were married last fall and a son and daughter who will be married this fall.

While she has been raising her family she has also found time to be active in various civic groups. She has served in the Girl Scouts, the Boy Scouts, Woman's Club, PTA and in the Daughters of the British Empire. During World War II she was on constant call as an interpreter. In 1952 she served as vice president on the Council of British Societies under Alan Mobray.

Her home has always been an exciting place to have a meal as you never see what country will be represented by her cuisine. She prepares Russian, French, Swedish, German, Hungarian, or almost any other kind of food with equal talent.

She has taken refresher courses in dietetics during these past years and has worked at her profession in the dietary kitchen at La Vina Sanatorium for two years and is presently the supervising manager of the Griswold School Cafeteria in Covina. This fall she plans to attend another refresher course at the State College in Long Beach.

In spite of her busy schedule she is compiling a cookbook of her own recipes which she hopes will soon be completed and published.

Local ALA Unit Receives Awards At District Meet

Election of new officers will take place when members of the American Legion Auxiliary meets June 13 in the home of Mrs. Val Miller, 144 San Gabriel Ct.

Those members of the Sierra Madre Unit attending the 18th District meeting last week in Pasadena were justly proud when their group was awarded three citations, National Citation for Meritorious Service, Veterans Administration Certificate, in recognition of volunteer service in behalf of the veteran patients at San Fernando Hospital and Certificate of Award from "Save the Children Federation," for service to needy children.

Also included on the agenda of this meeting were Memorial Services for members who had passed away during the year.

At the Unit's last regular meeting, in the home of Mrs. Rudolph Galkin, a donation of $7.50 was voted to the Sister Kenny Fund and $10 to the Heart Fund in memory of past commander, Arthur T. Evans.

On the Trails . . .

Founder of Rescue Crew Dedicated to Fellow Man

By Bill Work

We watched him standing there, talking quietly to the boy's mother, orange helmet in hand, boots worn from the trails, blue denim jacket and pants, dark hair and sympathetic brown eyes—Fred La Lone, leader of the Search and Rescue Crew, of whom we all are very proud.

Seldom in the history of Sierra Madre has one man given so much of his time to aid his fellow man.

Born in New Mexico 49 years ago, Fred first saw our mountains through a pall of smoke from the back of a Model-T truck, when he arrived in Sierra Madre with his parents and nine brothers and sisters, during the great fire of 1924.

FROM THAT day, the great wall of mountains has fascinated him, and Fred became a well known wanderer of the brushland. Even to mention his name makes one think of the mountains.

As early as 1928, Fred was a crew leader during the fire at Sandberg, on the Ridge Route, and since, has accumulated hundreds of hours in fire suppression work.

In 1941, he organized a group of young forest fire fighters. They met on Sundays, when Fred cooked breakfast for the gang. They planted trees we now enjoy, cleared the fire breaks, and kept the camp grounds clean.

For many years the mountain crew was one man, Fred La Lone. He spent many exhausting hours searching for lost and injured hikers.

It was after a grim search for the Welch boy, in which the youngster lay near death for three days and nights before he was found, that Fred recognized the need for a mountain rescue team of trained men who knew the mountains well. Fred's organization was unique, the first of its kind, and became the present Sierra Madre Search and Rescue Team. The only requirements for membership are a knowledge of the mountains, first aid, and a sincere desire to help others.

MORE THAN a leader to the team, Fred taught us the rough ways of the hills. Our guide to the back country, he taught us how to fish and hunt, and the habits of the wild animals. He taught us how to cook, to care for wounds, and gave us a lifelong love of the mountains.

In addition to saving many lives in the hills, Fred has given 48 pints of blood so that others may live.

And when a man nears the end of his trail, "the only things he does not regret or would not recall if he could, are the kind words spoken and deeds done in love of God and his fellow man. At that hour, the memories of these things count for more than all the gold in all the hills."

Mitchell Joins Camping Staff

Phillip Mitchell, City School teacher for 8 years and recreation director for the city for 4 years, has announced his connection with Spring-Time Camps in Crested Butte, Colorado.

Prior to opening date, June 22, Mr. Mitchell will recruit boys and girls and families for the youngster and special family camps.

Lamplighters Hold Annual Installation

Members of the Sierra Madre Methodist Church Lamplighters met in the Green Hotel Rancho Verdow Room for an installation dinner.

The evening's arrangements were under the direction of Mary Alice Accountant and Ruth Bohard, decorations; Julia McPheeters and Dorothy O'Rourke, place card; and Myron and Kay Smith, Cullen Weems, Chilton McPheeters and their assistants in making arrangements at the hotel and program.

The affair included selections by Lionel DeLeon, concert pianist, and a humorous cartoon-drawn illustrated talk on "The Beginning of Man" by Richard Petty.

Myron Smith presented miniature lamp posts to Kay Smith and Cullen Weems for perfect attendance.

Those new officers installed by Dr. McPheeters were Mr. and Mrs. Tom O'Rourke, president; Mr. and Mrs. Sam Kirk, vice president, and Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Accountant, secretary-treasurer. Appointed chairmen were Marguerite Bowman, publicity; Verne Jones, greeting cards; and Catherine Kirk, historian.

Marvina Matthews, accompanied by Mrs. Kirk, led the group in the singing of the Benediction which closed the evening's ceremonies.

Children Should Swim Early, Parents Warned

STANDARD TESTS

"In our intramural program we have certain standard tests for the youngsters to try on Saturdays. When they successfully pass these tests they are given achievement shields. This is all the competition I advise for beginners."

Wolf feels that teaching children to swim early is the best precaution to needless drowning. "Last Year alone, 20 kids were drowned in private swimming pools in Los Angeles County."

If you are planning a vacation near water this summer and you have a youngster that can't swim, Paul's your man. For information on classes call SY. 3-2704 or stop and see Paul Wolf at the pool in Pasadena.

Huntington Gets $15,500 Ford Foundation Grant

The Huntington Library in San Marino has been named as a recipient of a grant from the Ford Foundation to aid in the publication of scholarly books, it was announced by Dr. John E. Pomfret, library director. The grant, in the total amount of $15,500, will extend over a period of five years.

The purpose of the grant to the famous research library, according to officials of the Ford Foundation, "is to provide funds for the publication of new works of importance to scholarship in the humanities and the social sciences." Dr. Pomfret said:

"It is an obvious fact that the limited demand for such books, no matter how great their intrinsic importance, makes their publication cost almost prohibitive. For this reason, the Ford Foundation grants for this purpose are a great boon to the scholarly world."

THE BAFFLES

By Mahoney

... Fire Flames ...

By James Heasley

The Fire Department members are most thankful to those residents of our city who continue to practice fire prevention. The importance of removing fire hazards cannot be over-expressed. The result of constant alertness to fire danger must be practiced by a large majority of the home owners or we would not be able to report (year after year) the low fire losses we are so proud of.

It only takes one major fire to awaken people to the real danger, and if we avoid such a disaster, only common sense is needed to appreciate our efforts. The Fire Department cannot do the job alone. The assistance and cooperation of every citizen is needed. It is certainly not a crime to inform the firemen of a dangerous condition located within our city limits, or even across the border.

It is the aim and desire of the Fire Department to avoid fire calls. We need your help. Clean up the yard and premises of anything that burns, if the stuff can be hauled away. It is too late after a fire reaches burnable materials.

There is much more to being a member of the local Fire Department than to just having fun. The responsibility must be realized and the work to be done is of a serious nature. The protection of a city, now more than 8,000 people, is not child's play. Firemen are instructed and constantly reminded that there is much more to being a member of the Fire Department than being a "social duke."

True, a certain amount of enjoyment other than fighting fire enhances the desire to continue as a fireman. Many affairs are arranged to make the organization a fraternal club and to eliminate boredom. Our meetings are conducted in a business-like manner and yet many laughs are promoted at the proper time. Because the meetings include sufficient time to act natural and not "stiff," the attendance continues at a good percentage of the membership. One hundred per cent attendance is not unusual.

When a group of fellows is asked to appear at the station to clean windows, scrub the floor, shine the trucks, and many other things that go toward trying to keep a station in a half-way fire station appearance, there must be something that ties them to such loyalty. Many hands make light work and when an occasion arises for an action of this sort is asked, it can be depended that a jolly group will appear.

Consideration is given the patient wives, who are also called upon to take part in the activities. The girls do much when it comes to events requiring work. And besides that, they permit the boys to attend the Fire Department drills.

Ross Morgan Receives Speech Prize

"Problem Children" was the title of Ross Morgan's prize-winning speech at Sierra Madre Toastmasters Club meeting last week. His talk dealt with the increasing rate of juvenile delinquency which currently involves 2 1/2 per cent of all minors, according to Mr. Morgan.

Frank Gallagher talked on the subject of narcotics. He pointed out that heroin addicts are rarely cured and that each addict must himself become a "peddler" to support himself. The cost of heroin for the average addict is $100 per week, stated Mr. Gallagher.

Other seven-minute speeches were given by Winfield Hartnaff and Edward Cutler. The Toastmaster of the evening was William Pettit Jr.

Las Companeras Installs Officers

Las Companeras will meet next Wednesday at 12 o'clock noon at El Dorado Inn for its last meeting of the year.

Mrs. Duane C. Manning, outgoing president, will preside at installation ceremonies for Mrs. C. Don Hays, president; Mrs. Guy R. Knudson, first vice-president; Mrs. Paul G. Kaponya, second vice-president; Mrs. J. Frank Tobias, secretary; and Mrs. Stuart H. Zuck, treasurer.

Mrs. J. Cranor Richter, program chairman, will introduce Patrick Mahoney who will speak on "Adventures Into The Unknown."

If it weren't for the things we plan to do tomorrow life would hardly be worth living.

H. E. Bakers Visit Capitol

Mr. and Mrs. Howard E. Baker, 1335 Michillinda, meeting of the State corporation engineers. While at the Capitol, the Bakers visited Governor

Goodwin Knight in his executive offices and were conducted on a tour of the building by the Secretary of State.

Later they were entertained at the Executive Mansion by Mrs. Knight who showed them all five floors of the house. The Governor was unable to be at home, at this time, because the Assembly was in session.

Garden Notes...

Evergreen Vines Loveliest Of Summer Flowering Plants

Summertime in California means outdoor living time. All over the state families will be eating, playing and relaxing in their backyards and on their patios while enjoying the companionship of summer blooming plants.

Among the loveliest of summer flowering plants are the evergreen vines that can be planted to give shade protection from wind and beauty all in one, says the California Association of Nurserymen.

The Trumpet vines include a variety of flowering evergreens suitable for planting throughout most of California, although few are hardy where temperatures fall below 24 degrees. The Blood-Red Trumpet Vine (Phaenodanthe buccinatoria or Bigonia cherrie) is a fast-growing plant with glossy deep green foliage and flowers in gradations from yellow to rose-red. Once this vine is established, it's a strong, high-growing climber; plant it in the sun against a wall or high trellis. Prune each year to keep under control; feed and water generously.

VIOLET or pale lavender trumpets appear on the Violet Trumpet Vine (Clytostoma callistegioides or Bigonia violacea) in early spring and the middle of summer. Its foliage is a dark glossy green. The Violet Vine is strong-growing and needs support on a wall. It can be grown in sun or part shade and should be treated as a perennial in colder climates.

The Bougainvillea is one of the more popular of evergreen flowering vines. Its height of blooms comes in July; there are varieties blooming in shades of purple, red, magenta, scarlet—all brilliant and eye-catching. The Bougainvillea is strong-growing and will twine to 20 feet. Plant this vine against a warm wall; control it with pruning and feed generously.

One of the most fragrant flowering vines is the Gold Coast Jasmine (Jasminum dichomum) which grows rapidly in sun or part shade. This Jasmine has thick, glossy leaves and fragrant clusters of white flowers that open at night in June.

BRIGHT yellow fragrant flowers are borne on the Italian Jasmine (Jasminum humile) from July to September. It will do well in sun or part shade; the willowy shoots reach to 20 feet and can be arched or trained as a shrub.

Masses of brilliant blue bells cover the Australian Bluebell Creeper (Soliva fusiformis) through most of the summer. This vine grows as a low climber or trailing shrub and does well in full sun or part shade in coastal area, part shade inland. It should be watered generously. Plant the Australian Bluebell Creeper in a pot or tub placed on a wall so its branches can spill down. It can also be attractively grown as a ground cover.

The Scoreboard . . .

Rematch of Protested Oriole-Brave Game Set

SIERRA MADRE MINOR LEAGUE

By Chas. Abbe

BRAVES 21, ORIOLES 8

In a wild, free-for-all game which was "protested" by the Orioles, the Braves collected nine hits off three Orioles pitchers and the Orioles seven hits from Foxton and Englert.

It was Dave Foxton's return to the mound in the fourth inning, after being relieved by Englert in the third, which is the basis for the Oriole protest, when they were not allowed to return Shirk to the mound after having similarly relieved him.

The Orioles, led by Doug Spencer's fine pitching, were giving the Braves a 7-1 trouncing half-way through the third inning. Spencer developed a sore arm in the third, however, and the Braves capitalized on it in the fourth inning with their more powerful boys, to lead 10-8 by the last of the fifth. After a thorough discussion at a meeting of the managers, coaches and officers it was decided to replay this game on Friday, June 28. This should be a dandy!

YANKS 3, RED SOX 1
The Red Sox gave the Yanks a real run for their money but couldn't solve Menne's pitching for a single hit. This is his second no-hit game in the season—in consecutive games pitched. The only Red Sox player to reach first base was Paege, who walked in the fourth inning. The Yanks, though, didn't exactly knock the cover off the ball, getting only four hits on Dommeyer's pitching.

DODGERS 3, INDIANS 1
The Dodgers went into an early 3-0 lead which the Indians could not overcome, even though they began working on Nuetzel's pitching in the fourth inning, when he was relieved by Dennis Ower. Three Indian errors proved very costly to them, as did some less-than-alert base running.

"Rich" Schoren pitched the full six innings, holding the Dodgers to four hits; the Indians getting but two, being unable to connect when it really counted with the bases loaded and but one man out in the fifth.

ALL GAMES are played at City Ball Park (near the new swimming pool location), on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays, starting at 5:30. While attendance has been much larger than last year, everyone is urged to get out and give the boys all the support possible.

Next week's schedule: June 4—Yankees vs. Braves; June 5—Red Sox vs. Dodgers; June 6—Indians vs. Orioles.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Braves	3	0	1.000
Yankees	3	1	.750
Dodgers	2	1	.667
Orioles	1	1	.500
Red Sox	1	3	.250
Indians	0	4	.000

(Protested game not included.)

Friendship Club To Hold Last Meeting of Season

Last meeting of the season for members of the Community Friendship Club is scheduled for Monday, June 3, at noon in the City Park. San Gabriel Valley guests will include Rodney Ellsworth, leader of the PCC Senior Citizens class. Guests are asked to bring their lunch and service, coffee will be served. Following the picnic, a program will be presented in the Park House, music provided by A. D. Hoenshel of Pasadena. Club meetings resume in October.

LOCAL DOCTOR HAS "MODERN MIRACLE" FOR ARTHRITIS

Dr. Ralph J. Martin whose office since 1951 has been located in the Hotel Arcade has recently moved to 478 West Sierra Madre Blvd. at Park Ave. Dr. Martin now reports that he has just added an amazing new piece of ultrasonic equipment to his offices. One of the first doctors in this country to use ultrasonics in the treatment of arthritis and many other conditions, Dr. Martin is considered a pioneer and an authority of national reputation in the use of ultrasonics. He will conduct a two-day session on ultrasonics in July at the Ambassador Hotel in Los Angeles at the annual convention of the National Chiropractic Association.

In a recent report, Dr. Kenneth Phillips, M.D., Director of Physical Medicine of Jackson Memorial Hospital in Miami, Florida, has directed the use of ultrasonics in 92,000 treatments and refers to it as "today's magic" in the treatment of arthritis, bursitis and rheumatoid conditions.

Dr. Martin's new Ultrasonic unit is the same as the new type used in the Miami hospital and is considered to be a vast improvement over older models and he believes that he will soon install two or more units to meet the demand in this area for the amazing relief which may be experienced in arthritis, bursitis, back troubles and many other joint afflictions.—Adv.

Beavers, Stars Undefeated In National League Play

By Charles Ayres

After two weeks of play things have tightened up in the American division of the Hastings Little League with all teams having suffered defeat.

The Beavers and Stars still remain undefeated in the National with only the Royals yet to win a game, although they battled the Stars to a 3-3 deadlock in the week's best game.

Phil Olwin pitched a no-hit, no-run game to pace the Beavers to a 9-0 win over the Yankees. He also teamed with Jay Frontino in driving in five of the runs with a home run apiece. The Braves rounded out a highly successful week by trimming the Indians, 10-4, aided by four Indian errors in the third inning.

THE DODGERS clung to first place by coming from behind with a big 7-run rally in the fifth inning to edge the Reds, 14-13. Previously they had dropped a close 4-2 decision to the Yankees while the Reds, aided by John Sorenson's home run and Hugh Saurenman's steady pitching, beat the Tigers, 11-4. The only other action saw the Indians take the Tigers, 10-5. National League teams seemed to find their batting eyes, scoring 131 runs in Saturday's action alone.

The Beavers led the way, swamping the Royals, 23-9, as well as turning back the Giants. Moffet led the hitting with three safeties. Curtis Robinson held the Stars in check effectively, giving the Royals a five-inning, three-run standoff in a game where the Royals failed to get one hit.

In other action the Stars beat the Seals, 20-12, the Seals edged the Red Sox, 14-10, and the Cubs split even, downing the Angels, 13-8, and dropping a 22-16 decision to the Red Sox. In the latter game Osborn, Saxon and Phillipson provided some fielding gems.

VILLA VIEWS

By Toni Maurin
SY 7-9634

And so one more May is under our belt and we come again to Memorial Day. The day that is set aside to remember warriors fallen in the battle field. I sometimes wonder though if people don't look on it as more of a legal holiday, rather than a day of honor and reverence for those that died too young so that we might better enjoy the life that was given to us.

The wonderful part of our fighting men is that they never quit fighting for what is right. There is not a better organized unit than the American Legion, the V.F.W. and some of the other service clubs that have done more than their share for their countrymen, but still feel, although the guns have stopped firing, that there job is not over. It is never too late to let them know that we appreciate what they have done, and are doing, and that we CARE.

DR. AND MRS. George Woodruff became grandparents of a 6½ pound baby boy, born May 10th. The parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Hobart Woodruff Jr., their son and daughter-in-law, from Santa Barbara. They named the boy John Hobart. Mrs. Woodruff has been up twice to assist them and tells me they have plans to move to Sierra Madre for the summer as soon as final examinations are over at the Santa Barbara University.

DR. AND MRS. Charles Rasmussen of 1845 Kinneloa Canyon Road returned last week from a five-day trip to Coronado, where they stayed at the Hotel Del Coronado. They were attending the California Osteopathic Association Convention. Mrs. Rasmussen is resuming the position of corresponding secretary of Auxiliary to the California Osteopathic Association and was installed along with the rest of the officers at a big luncheon. The finale of the convention was held at a big ball on Saturday night.

AT LONG last the lovely new house at the end of Old House Road at 1405 Sierra Madre Villa is occupied by the new owners, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Tumilty (Pat and Helen to their many local friends). They moved in last week from their apartment in Arcadia. They have a son, Mike who will go into the seventh grade next year. Mr. Tumilty is owner and president of the two Rounds Carpeting stores in Pasadena and Arcadia. (I wonder where they got their carpeting?) and Mrs. Tumilty is the president this year of the Sierra Guild to the Children's Hospital.

DR. AND MRS. Norman McBride of 3414 Vosburg just returned from a week's flying trip to San Francisco where they attended the American Animal Hospital Association Convention. Dr. McBride was in charge of the program. I asked Mrs. McBride if they had any plans for the summer and she told me that her two daughters are leaving for Europe in June so they are planning on sticking pretty close to home.

MR. AND MRS. C. Tom Crawford of 1360 Sierra Madre Villa and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Phelps of 1430 Old House Road took a recent weekend off and went up to Mojave Lake with the Phelps' boat in tow.

Also shown are Mrs. John Kane, PTA president; Kent Wilson and Robin Dale. The PTA each spring presents a show for the children.

Riding Class
To Start at Eaton Canyon

Mrs. Jeanne Cummiskey, 1039 Cynthia, will start her teaching program at Eaton Canyon Stables, within the next two weeks. She specializes in Junior and Senior High School age groups. Instructions include the learning of the names and uses of all equipment on, for and around horses.

Following classes in bareback riding, Western and English riding, the classes will be taken on trail trips and picnic rides through the canyons and parks.

Riders showing promise will be encouraged to participate in the monthly gymnasium horse shows at the stable. As they progress, they will be given training in drill team patterns and jumping in the large hunter-trials filed behind the stable.

After each group of 10 lessons, the riders will be asked for a practical demonstration of horsemanship. If they pass Mrs. Cummiskey's tests, they will be qualified and privileged to rent the school horses for Sunday and warm summer evening pleasure trips.

Private and semi-private classes will be given week day mornings and Wednesday afternoons and evenings for adults and teen-agers.

This new program is being sponsored by the owners of the stable, The Johnsons, who are remodeling the premises on New York Drive. Further information may be had by calling the stables at SYcamore 8-3600 or Mrs. Cummiskey at ELgin 5-2707.

Constipation Is Mankind's Most Common Disorder

Constipation is without question among the most common disorders of mankind.

It is a condition that is restricted almost entirely to the civilized world. Primitive Eskimos had no word in their vocabulary to describe until they adopted the diet and ways of our civilization did constipation become a problem.

Many people erroneously think that a daily bowel movement is essential to health. Actually, bowel functions may be normal and regular with a movement every two or three days. True constipation occurs when a stool passes with difficulty, is unusually firm, and movements are irregular and infrequent.

THERE ARE many causes of constipation. If the condition develops over a short period of time without other apparent cause, an obstruction or other disease process in the large bowel must be considered. If the problem is of long duration, it usually is harmless.

In most instances of simple constipation, there is an increase in the muscular contraction of the bowel wall, resulting in muscular spasm. These changes interfere with the normal motions that propel the waste matter toward the rectum. This type of constipation often results in abdominal pain.

Diet is important in constipation. The condition may occur merely from an inadequate intake of food. This is often the case in elderly individuals and in persons on low caloric diets.

Inadequate fluid intake also contributes to constipation. When the diet is low in bulk-forming foods (roughage) constipation tends to result. Foods such as cereals, fruits and vegetables provide required bulk.

Most cases of true constipation are at least in part associated with tensions or emotional problems. Nervous strains and worries are so prevalent in modern living that they readily give rise to disorderly bowel function.

HABITUAL postponement of bowel movements is another factor that may be a major contributing cause in constipation. Also, the continued use of laxatives and enemas may aggravate constipation.

Inasmuch as there are many causes of constipation treatment must be individualized and should be under the direction of a physician. Contributing factors should be carefully sought out and any necessary changes made to correct them. These may include dietary changes, patient education, and relief of any contributing emotional problem.

Use of laxatives and bulk-forming agents may be employed as needed. As noted, if a person suddenly develops constipation or other change in bowel habit, he should seek immediate medical attention as this may be the early warning signs of serious disease. The underlying cause may then be discovered and effectively treated.

WALTER SHATFORD, attorney, pleaded for the need of facilities to handle the education of the huge crop of children of the area, and pointed out the "very real need for a junior college here," because, he said, for many it is all the college they are able to afford. He said 50 per cent of Sierra Madre graduates attend PCC.

James Sibbett, a bachelor, confined his remarks solely to religion in the schools, advocating that the Board set up a plan for morning class exercises including the Lord's Prayer.

Answering a question on whether or not he favored a new high school at Victory Park, he said he would have to consider it further before answering.

John H. Poole, an attorney, said he is in favor of an "independent" secretary of the School Board rather than using the school superintendent because, he said, the superintendent, representing "his teachers," with the Board, representing the public, "no matter how conscientious he might be."

He also pointed out that the Board should set up a policy of discipline in the school, and upon a question of whether he meant "corporal punishment," he said he would leave that up to the administration.

Don Winton, designer, said he was "dedicated to the youth of our city," and was for "efficiency and economy" but not at the expense of our classrooms and recreation facilities.

Book Fair to Precede Talk At Library

A secondary purpose of the Book Fair is to inaugurate the summer reading program co-sponsored by the PTA and the Library.
